EduKick Football Academies are the ultimate in language immersion, study abroad, football travel programs. Our academies provide daily professional football training combined with quality language instruction, academic courses and chaperoned cultural excursions in order to maximize the young person's overall experience abroad.

Academy participants can expect to develop their language skills and academic knowledge by attending one of our affiliated High Schools or universities daily and increase their technical skills on the pitch by participating in our intense, daily professional football trainings sessions.

Summer Football Camp participants can expect to develop their language skills considerably through our daily language classes and improve their football skills immensely by participating in our intense, daily professional football trainings sessions.
